Ordinary Members

An Ordinary Member shall be a person who has full privileges of the Clubhouse and is entitled to full playing rights and voting rights, and shall be eligible to hold office in the Club. It should be noted that Wednesday is Ladies Competition Day and Thursday is Men's Scroungers.

Senior Members

A Senior Member shall be an Ordinary Member who has attained the age of 65 years as at the last day of February in any year and has a valid government pension card. Ordinary Members who are not 65 years of age but hold a valid government pension card may also be classed as Senior Members. Senior Members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club.

Transitional Member

A Transitional Member shall be an Ordinary Member who, in the first instance, as at the last day of February in any year, has attained the age of 18 years but has not attained the age of 24 years and in the second instance has attained the age of 24 years but not attained the age of 45 years. A Transitional Member shall be a person who has full privileges of the Clubhouse and is entitled to full playing rights and voting rights, but shall be eligible to hold office in the Club. Proof of age document required.

Lifestyle Members

A Lifestyle Membership will entitle you to membership of the Club, a recognised Golf Australia Handicap and the ability to play in competitions. But course access is a User Pays system where you will be required to pay the current prescribed discounted green fee for either 1-9 or 10-18 hole access. The discounted green fee is payable each time you play on the course, whether in ANY competition, including Open events, a social or practice round. The discounted green fees are payable at the Pro Shop before entry to the Course. Lifestyle Members have no voting rights, are ineligible to win honour board events and ineligible to hold office. Lifestyle Members do not have access to reciprocal clubs.

Lifestyle Senior Members

A Lifestyle Senior Member shall be a Lifestyle Member who has attained the age of 65 years as at the last day of February in any year and has a valid Australian Government Pension Card. Lifestyle Members who are not 65 years of age but hold a valid Australian Government Pension Card may also be classed as Lifestyle Senior Members.

Social Member

A Social Member shall be a person who may use only the facilities of the Club House. Social Members shall not be entitled to voting rights, to hold office in the Club, or to play on the Golf Course except socially, on payment of a designated green fee. Subject to these Rules, a person may be elected as a Member of the Club in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Management Committee may determine.

Resignation of Membership

A Member may at any time by giving one month's notice in writing to the Secretary, resign his/her membership of the Club, but shall continue to be liable for any subscription or other debt to the Club due and unpaid at the date of his/her resignation, and the Club may deduct from any amount due the former member any amount due by him/her to the Club. Resignation within one month of the 1st March in any year shall not incur any indebtedness of his/her current subscription.
